Make The Discovery With Route 123

Edmonton Transit's Route 123 (one, two, three) is a great way to visit some of Edmonton's major tourist attractions. This special route operates every Sunday and Holiday afternoon from Victoria Day to Labour Day. All you have to do is wait at any regular transit zone on the route (see map) and board for regular transit fare. The bus only runs in one direction—clockwise and arrives every half hour.

A Scenic Ride

Route 123 takes you to the Legislature Building where you can wander through the beautiful park area and tour the centre of Alberta Government. Next stop is the University of Alberta campus with HUB Mall and the "Butterdome". Continuing the tour, you'll travel to Fort Edmonton Park, an adventure in local history, and the John Janzen Nature centre, a place to get back to nature. Your next stop, the Valley Zoo, is full of beautiful sights and sounds and will be a hit with the kids. Last on our "discovery ring" is the Provincial Museum where you'll find Alberta's natural and human history in permanent and changing exhibits.

For specific information on facility hours and admission rates, see the back of this brochure.

An Easy Way To Explore

Bus fare for Route 123 is $1.00 for Adults, .50 for children under 16 and senior citizens, and children under six accompanied by a parent ride free. Please use exact coins. If you wish to stop off and explore any of the facilities along the way, ask for a transfer when you board the bus. Transfers are valid for 90 minutes from the time of issue and can be used to board any bus. This allows a quick visit at the facility and you can board the next Route 123 bus to continue the fun!

Travel Information

For exact times and connections to other routes, please call Transit Information to plan your trip. Transit Information is open every weekday from 6:30 a.m. to 10:30 p.m.; call 421-4636. Many routes do not have service on Sundays and statutory holidays. Route information is detailed in the Spring and Summer '86 Guide available free at public libraries, the Downtown Information Centre (100A Street and Jasper Avenue), hotels and tourist information centres.

If you are planning a group visit to any location in Edmonton, or within an 80 kilometre radius of the city, Edmonton Transit's Charter Service can help. Charter service begins at $58.50 per hour. For more information, call 428-5590 Monday through Friday between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.
