Getting on the bus:
Have your exact fare ready. 25 cents for adults, or if you are 15 years or under 15 cents. Bus Operators Do Not Carry Change. If you need a transfer, ask the driver. If you use the bus a lot, it's cheaper and easier to flash your bus pass.

Riding the bus:
If it's crowded, move back as far as you can, this helps other people to get on. Make it a point to help the elderly and disabled, by letting them have your seat. They really appreciate it. Parents can help by holding small children on their knee.

Getting Off the bus:
As soon as your stop is coming up, pull the bell cord once. If somebody beats you to the draw, don't pull it again. The driver will stop anyway. Always leave by the rear door. This helps other people waiting to get on the bus.

Passes are available at more than 150 ticket outlets, financial institutions, stores and concession stands.
